

NOW Inc. Announces Exclusive International Distribution Agreement with Badger Meter for the Oil and Gas Production Market

October 4, 2017

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 4, 2017-- NOW Inc.'s (NYSE:DNOW) U.S. subsidiary DNOW L.P. is proud to announce its Exclusive International Distribution Agreement with Badger Meter. DNOW will distribute and service the diverse line of Badger Meter flow measurement and control technologies to DNOW oil and gas customers worldwide.

Robert Workman, President and CEO of NOW Inc., remarked, "We are excited to partner with Badger Meter to complete our offering of flow control solutions for the oil and gas market. Our flow control solutions will now include meters and valves that measure and control materials flowing through pipelines, allowing DNOW to bring further technological advances to our customers' operating facilities. Badger Meter is a premier manufacturer of the entire line of metering products required by our existing oil and gas customer base. I believe this seamless expansion of our North American partnership enhances both companies' abilities to meet our customers' increasing demands for solutions that deliver accurate, timely, and dependable flow data and control."

"With more than 110 years of flow measurement expertise, Badger Meter products offer a proven track record of performance in the demanding applications of the oil production market," said Rich Meeusen, President, CEO and Chairman of Badger Meter. "This distribution agreement brings our trusted brands, such as Preso, Blancett, Hedland, and Research Control Valves, together with the already extensive product line and expert service and support, to create a winning combination for DNOW's oil and gas customers."
